The Last Supper

The Last Supper was a special meal shared by Jesus and his friends during Passover.

Jesus and the disciples were eating quietly because they were worried. It was a very dangerous time for Jesus. Many people wanted to kill him because they were angry that he was so popular.

When Jesus spoke, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you here will betray me." All of his disciples seemed shocked. They wondered which of them it would be.

Jesus explained that he would die, but the traitor would feel sorry forever. Judas quietly asked if it was him. Jesus replied, "Yes, you are the one." Judas felt ashamed and nervous.

At this point, Jesus thanked God for the bread and wine. He said that:

- The bread was his body which was given for them;
- The red wine was his blood, which would be poured out for many people so their sins would be forgiven.

The bread was broken for everyone to eat and they all took a sip of wine as the cup was passed around.

After the meal, Jesus changed into simple servant clothes. He filled a bowl with water and washed his friends' feet. He then dried them with the towel he was wearing around his waist.

The disciples were amazed because to them Jesus was the King of Kings. Because of this, Peter did not want Jesus to wash his feet. Jesus explained that he needed to wash his feet for his whole body to become clean. Jesus finished washing his friends' feet. He then changed back into his normal clothes and returned to the table.

They prayed. Jesus explained that now that he had washed their feet, they could wash one another's feet.

Jesus meant that it is important to do nice things for others.

Do This in Memory of Me

During mass, the priest says the Eucharistic prayer. The priest asks the Holy Spirit to come down upon the bread and wine. They then become the gift of the risen Jesus, the bread of life. We then remember the Last Supper. At the Last Supper, Jesus said, 'Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.'

Afterwards He said, 'Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.' Jesus told His friends to 'Do this in memory of me.' This is why we come together at Mass, to do what Jesus asked us to, in memory of Him.

Draw a picture of yourself at the table with Jesus and His friends. This shows that you want to share the bread of life too.
